- Real estate and construction

Since 1994, Dr. Juan Carlos Landrove has developed the following core areas of practice:

International Commercial Arbitration

Landrove is repeatedly involved in ad hoc or institutional arbitrations under most rules of international arbitration, including the Rules of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), Swiss Chambers (Swiss Rules of International Arbitration), London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), and the International Centre for Dispute Resolution of the American Arbitration Association International (ICDR/AAA). Landrove also benefits from a significant exposure to foreign investment arbitration, notably through ad hoc and International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) cases.

Litigation

Landrove acts regularly as party counsel before the Swiss courts, notably in fields relating to arbitration (enforcement and challenge of arbitral awards), real estate and construction.

Conciliation / Mediation

Landrove also has extensive know-how in mediation, conciliation and other alternative dispute resolution methods.

Sports Law

In the field of sports law, Landrove is regularly involved in representing both team owners and individual athletes in diverse disciplines such as football (soccer), cycling, and motor racing. Landrove is often involved in sport arbitrations under the rules of the Court of Arbitration for Sports (CAS).

Business Law / Contracts

Landrove contract law practice includes providing advice in relation to the interpretation of all sorts of contracts including general commercial contracts and complex international transactions. Daily activities cover the negotiation and drafting of contracts in the fields of agency, construction, employment, estates, landlord and tenant, pharmaceuticals, real estate, sales, sports, and work.
